- Training requirements • Facilities required
- Nutritional requests • Fixtures • Rehabilitation
- Arranged matches & officials • Extra activities
- Day excursions and the team budget

Background Experience Football

At Ingwenyama Conference & Sport Resort we aim to provide the ideal environment for both the management and players to gain maximum benefit from their time spent with us. Every football team has a different approach to training camps, and this is why we custom-create camps, based on individual teams requests. Ideal preparation is the key to ensuring that a training camp runs smoothly and allows the teams to achieve success.

The all year round climate and facilities at Ingwenyama Conference & Sport Resort are ideal for football. The reason why a number of top clubs & countries have already chosen Ingwenyama Conference & Sport Resort for their pre-season / pre-competition training and international windows. World Cup 2010 was the biggest sporting event ever to take place in South Africa and Ingwenyama Conference & Sport Resort were delighted to be the official headquarters for accommodation and training for the Chile Football Federation. This event was followed by AFCON 2013 where we were again selected as official headquarters for accommodation and training for the Nigerian football Federation, and before their arrival Burkina Faso utilized our facilities as there pre-tournament camp for 16 days and then again in 2015 for AFCON 2015. Warm up games with officials and medical teams can be arranged and trips out to underdeveloped areas can be arranged for coaching and training sessions. Mini tournaments have been arranged in the past as an alternative to warm up games to put the guys into a competitive mindset for the day.

During the same tournament the Tunisian and the Ghanaian Football Federations used our facilities as well.
